Memorandum of Understanding between
The Hong Kong Psychological Society (Limited)
and
The Australian Psychological Society Ltd

The Hong Kong Psychological Society (HKPS) and The Australian Psychological Society (APS) hereby agree to work together to promote professional links between the two organisations in order to contribute to the advancement of knowledge and its application to the benefit of our respective communities.

1. Purpose of the Agreement

The purpose of this agreement is to establish cooperative relations, based on the principles of mutual benefit and respect, between the two organisations in the areas set out below.

2. Scope of Cooperation

Both organisations agree to encourage the following activities:

1. Regular contact and exchange of information and ideas between the APS and HKPS.
2. Encouragement of professional meetings, symposia and workshops, approved as suitable by both organisations.
3. Support for the widest inclusion of national psychological organisations in activities in international psychological societies and related organisations.

3. Implementation of Cooperation Agreement

The professional activities listed above are to be carried out through mutual consultation. There is no financial obligation involved in or created by this Memorandum of Understanding. Liaison staff will be designated within each organisation to facilitate and coordinate activities between the two organisations.

Both organisations commit themselves to inform each other promptly about necessary changes in this agreement. Termination of this agreement may be initiated by either organisation giving a one-year written notice to the other organisation of the intention to terminate.

This agreement is entered into by both organisations in a spirit of international friendship and mutual collegial respect.
